W.A.L.T: write a story

John entered the sitting room with a ^{meant} to be colorful book. He sat in a blank stool, in a dull room, with a dark face. After the book had been stocked, John opened it. It was about butterflies. All the butterflies were scanned, as the rain was dripping down the roof.

Suddenly all the butterflies came to life and turned EVERYONE and EVERYTHING colorful!!! They swooped and dived, and flew around before going into the book. John was sucked instantly into the book, and grew wings!

Just as John was getting used to it, a dragon/dinosaur came to them!
"WOW!" he said "What is that?!"
"That is the terror among us all!", "The butterflies called in melodious voices. John was speechless."
"He is a dinosaur by day, a dragon by night, you must kill him as a dinosaur and a dragon!" The glittering creations explained.

John was thinking "I'm going to kill that monster." the butterflies were told the great plan: "At day the non-glow-in-the-dark distract the dinosaur bit at day, and the glow-in-the-dark distract him at night, and I kill him." John rushed through. So the plan was ² done.

So it all ended, everything was colorful, and John went into lots of books.
