Additional information:

Westbury Church of England Junior school is situated close to the centre of Westbury; it is a large junior school with extensive grounds. At Westbury CE Junior School, every child is offered their moment to shine. All children feel valued for who they are and recognise that school life is relevant to their lives. At Westbury CE Junior School, we show respect to all, show care for all and inspire all to be the best version of themselves they can be.

As a Church of England School, core Christian values underpin our school day. All adults in the school model these values to our children and parents speak very highly about how this contributes to a positive learning environment. Our children understand that, regardless of background or personal circumstance, we are a place where everyone can succeed and everyone has worthy contributions to make to our whole school community.

We wish to recruit an enthusiastic and forward-thinking Teaching Assistant for our Complex Needs Resource Base. We hope to recruit someone who has high expectations both of themselves and others - someone who can inspire pupils and adults alike. We would love to hear from someone who has a passion for SEND.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has high expectations and is able to raise aspiration and achievement
- Has a passion for and experience of working with SEND children
- Is able to support children's learning either in groups or 1:1 work
- Is able to support children's self-esteem and behaviour development
- Is willing to support children who require physical/personal care

We can offer:

- An excellent professional development opportunities
- A friendly working environment
- An inclusive and caring ethos – a strong and positive family feel

- Specialist staff and a motivated team

We encourage a visit to our school; nothing sells a school like the people who make it. – come and see us – To arrange a visit please contact Lizzie Curtis in the school office on 01373 822695 or emailing admin@westbury-jun.wilts.sch.uk

We would love to hear from you.
